BETH ISRAEL
SUNDAY SCHOOL

Have your child experience a sense of belonging and fun, and an appreciation of Israel and Jewish culture. Our curriculum familiarizes each child with Hebrew, holidays, and prayers; and prepares them for their eventual bar and bat mitzvahs.

Where and Who:

The Sunday School will take place at Beth Israel Synagogue in Wallingford, CT. Students range from age four thru B'nai Mitzvah. Monthly family services on a Friday and Saturday are also part of the curriculum.

When:

The school meets every Sunday morning for all students, and one evening during the week for children in 3rd grade and up throughout the school year.

Our Expertise:

The Sunday sessions will be taught by a husband and wife team: Deborah Lurie Edery, a long time New Haven area resident, and Jacob Edery, who grew up in Israel and served in the IDF. The couple co-taught Hebrew school in western Connecticut for 20 years. Midweek sessions for students in 3rd grade and up will be led by the synagogue's rabbi, Rabbi Bruce Alpert.
